

Val Rogers -Short Entertainment Bio

Val Rogers is an accomplished vocalist, writer, arranger, entertainer and conceptual artist. She has solely produced three cabaret shows at the charming Chestnut Street Playhouse in Norwich, CT; “Drinks on Me”, “Beyond the Sea” and “The Days of Wine and Roses”.

Her originality and unique talents stem from touring Europe and the Mediterranean with the USO and DOD. She continues her veterans work by performing with -and for - many Veteran focused events.

She co-owns the acclaimed 12-piece “Red Satin Band” and is the primary vocalist with area Big Bands. She studied vocal performance at the University of Connecticut and earned a Master of Public Administration degree at UConn.

With thousands of performances under her belt, she has gained reviews such as: “she’s a complete performer”, “Val is absolutely the best”, and “Great style, presence, audience appeal – and amazing voice!”.

She lives in Willington, CT with her “high-school” sweetheart-husband, Scot. She has two sons, two rescue dogs, two rescue donkeys plus, countless weeds in her lovely gardens.
