Producer and Performer of Cabaret Performances

Val has produced three specialty shows capitalizing on her unique ability to know and entertain her audiences. Selecting music that engages the audience while capitalizing on her team of outstanding musicians, Val's formula of Cabaret simply works.

"Drinks on Me" brings the audience on the true cabaret experience in an intimate setting. Performing music that has inspired her career, from Broadway to Billy Joel to the American standard song book.

"Beyond the Sea" takes dock at the ports of jazz, swing pop with a special military tribute. This show is inspired by Val's days with the USO.

"Days of Wine and Roses" shares with the audience the romance of the Great American Song Book and beyond. Song highlights from Sinatra, the Gershwin's to Sammy Cahn to Carol King.
